Prepared By: Domo Tactical Communications (DTC) Ltd

Thank you for using Domo Video Player.

Your privacy is important to us. This Privacy Policy explains how Domo Video Player handles your information.

Information We Collect

Domo Video Player does not collect, store, transmit, or share any personal information.

The app does not require you to create an account or provide personal details such as your name, email address, phone number, or location.

Media Access

Domo Video Player may request permission to access videos and media files stored on your device. This permission is used only to allow you to browse and play your local video files.

Your media files remain on your device and are never uploaded, collected, or transmitted by the app.

Data Sharing

Because Domo Video Player does not collect any personal information, it does not sell, share, or disclose user data to third parties.

Third-Party Services

Domo Video Player does not use third-party analytics, advertising, or tracking services that collect personal information.

If future versions of the app include third-party services, this Privacy Policy will be updated accordingly.

Data Security

Since Domo Video Player does not collect or store user data, there is no personal information stored on our servers.

Children's Privacy

Domo Video Player does not collect personal information from children under the age of 13. As no personal information is collected from any users, the app is suitable for general audiences.

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. Any changes will be posted on this page along with an updated effective date.
